

ABSTRACT

ADITYA (105951100217). Level Participation Public In Management Forest Society (Hkm) In hamlet Lajoanging Village Hope Subdistrict Tanete Riaja, Barru Regency. In bring Guidance Naufal and Jauhar Mukti.

Community participation is one of the elements/factors that support success Community Forest (HKm) program at the UPT KPHL Forest Management Unit Unit II Ajatappareng

Study this aim for knowing level participation Public in Management Forest Society (Hkm) In hamlet Lajoanging. study this conducted on date 09 February 2022 until with 28 March 2022. use method surveys and interviews.

Based on the results of the research, the first variable is the level of community participation in give ideas with an average score of 2.76 in the High category, the second variable is Community participation in providing Power Participation with the average score of 2.85 is in the high category, the third variable is Social participation with an average score of 2.73 entered in the high category, the fourth variable level Community participation in planning with an average score of 2.65 enter on category Tall, variable five levels participation Public in carry out the implementation of activities with an average score of 2.79 entered in Category Tall, variable to six level participation Public in Utilization Results with an average score of 3.00 entered in the High Category, the seventh variable level community participation in monitoring with an average score of 2.50 enter on High Category, it can be concluded that the level of community participation from the first variable until the last in the management of Community Forests (Hkm) in the hamlet of Lajoangin, village Hope, district Tanete riaja, district Barru tall with average score 2.64.

Keywords: Community Participation, Community Forest, Participation Level Public.