ABSTRACT

Nurcitra Aamlia Anfar, 2024. The Influence of the Project for Strengthening the Profile of Pancasila Students on Civic Skills among students at SMA Negeri 6 Jeneponto in Jeneponto Regency. Thesis. Pancasila and Citizenship Education Study Program. Faculty of Teacher Training and Education, Muhammadiyah University of Makassar. Supervised by Muhajir as supervisor I and Mr. Suardi as lecturer supervisor II.

The aim of this research is to find out how the Citizenship Skills (Civic Skills) of students at SMA Negeri 6 Jeneponto in Jeneponto Regency are and to analyze the influence of the Project for Strengthening the Profile of Pancasila Students on Citizenship Skills (Civic Skills) for students at SMA Negeri 6 Jeneponto.

This research uses a combined research method (mixed methods research), namely research based on a combination of positivism and positivism. Mixed methods research is a research approach that combines or associates qualitative and quantitative forms.

The results of this research show that there is an influence of the Project for Strengthening the Pancasila Student Profile on Civic Skills in SMA Negeri 6 students where students have been able to instill character or attitudes related to several dimensions such as the dimension of faith and devotion to God Almighty and having noble morals, the dimension of mutual cooperation, the dimension of independence and creative dimension. Moreover, in students' civic skills, the teacher's strategy can be seen at the beginning of the lesson, the teacher explains that those who are active will be given self-reward in the form of additional points. Apart from these strategies, through presentations in front of the class you can also develop students' civic skills in intellectual abilities.
