ABSTRACT

Muhammad Syahrullah Langguta 2024. Analysis of the Effectiveness of the Family Hope Program (FHP) on Poverty Reduction in an Islamic Economic Perspective (Case Study of FHP Recipients in Lembo Raya District). Thesis. Department of Islamic Economics. Faculty of Economics and Business. University of Muhammadiyah Makassar. Guided by. Idham Khalid and Sri Wahyuni.

This research is a type of qualitative research with the aim of finding out how effective the acceptance of the Family Hope Program is in overcoming poverty in Lembo Raya District and to understand how the Family Hope Program is in the perspective of Islamic economics. The informants in this study consisted of 1 assistant from Lembo Raya District and 3 people who received assistance funds for the family hope program. The measurement of the level of effectiveness in this study uses a review of Ni Wayan Budiani's theory of effectiveness and Maqashid Sharia's theory for a review from the perspective of Islamic Economics. Based on the results of the study, it shows that the assistance funds of the Family Hope Program which aims to reduce poverty, help the economy of poor households, and improve the quality of Human Resources, one of which is in Lembo Raya District, has been effective. However, the Family Hope Program needs to be evaluated even better, providing spiritual assistance or basic understanding of religion to all stakeholders, both companions and communities receiving assistance from the Family Hope Program.

Keywords: Family Hope Program (FHP), Poverty Reduction, Effectiveness, Islamic Economy.
