

ABSTRAK

Nur Hidayatul Fitri, Jaelan Usman, Abdi. Professionalism of Ferry Crossing Port Managers in Pamatata, Selayar Islands Regency

This type of research is basically a scientific way to obtain data with specific purposes and uses. To achieve this goal, a method is needed that is relevant to the goal to be achieved. This type of research uses a qualitative research type with a descriptive type that focuses on the professionalism of the ferry port manager in Pamatata, Selayar Islands Regency. The results of this research are planning the management of the ferry crossing port in Pamatata, Selayar Islands Regency, with the aim of providing better and more organized crossing services. Basically, organizing port management is not only related to regulations that are national in nature, but also closely related to various regulations and conventions that are regional and international. Actuating that the current implementation of port management is the core of the problem which is reduced to a conflict of interest. (Controlling) Implementation of supervision must have standards that are determined in order to minimize or prevent errors or omissions in the sense of standards

Keywords: professionalism, manager, harbor, crossing, ferry